The Diary of Anne Frank Worksheet

Point of View: We see Anne Frank's experiences from her point of view.

- Are there times when you feel she is wrong in how she judges someone else? (4/2/43. 8/21/42. 9/2/42. 9/27/42. 9/28/42. 4/2/43. 7/13/43. 7/29/43. 8/4/43. 8/9/43. 10/17/43. 10/29/43. 1/12/44. 1/28/44. 2/16/44. 6/16/44. 7/6/44)
- Many times the way we see ourselves is totally different from the way others see us. How does Anne see herself? How does she describe herself? How does she think she changes as she lives through 25 months of hiding? (9/28/42. 1/30/43. 8/10/43. 1/2/44. 1/5/44. 3/7/44. 2/12/44. 2/19/44. 2/27/44. 3/2/44. 3/7/44. 3/23/44. 3/28/44. 4/4/44. 4/6/44. 4/28/44. 5/5/44. 5/7/44. 7/15/44. 8/1/44)
- How does she view the war and the need to go into hiding? (7/11/42. 10/9/42. 1/13/43. 3/25/43. 5/1/43. 5/18/43. 7/26/43. 11/27/43. 1/15/44. 1/28/44. 2/3/44. 2/23/44. 3/29/44. 4/14/44. 5/22/44. 6/15/44. 7/21/44) Why do you think she takes this view?

Forces of Antagonism: Conflict occurs in her life on all three levels (self, personal world, societal world) almost constantly. Write down examples from her entries:

- Man vs. self:
- Man vs. personal world (family, loved ones, friends):
- Man vs. society/nature:
